Significant Quotations: The Waste Land by T.S. Eliot ... Pressing lidless eyes and waiting for a knock upon the door (The Waste Land II.136-139) I love the way this little scene is written, with the words of one character and the thoughts of the other. It seems to me a very powerful way to make the scene feel real. Memory and the Past Quotes: The Waste Land Page 1 An unknown person asks the narrator of the poem a bunch of really nervous, neurotic questions, which all seem to express doubt that the speaker (or even you, the reader) know anything at all.
